

ARRIVAL OF COMMODORE MOORE OF THE TEXAN NAVY.—We learn that this gentleman is in town. The Mexican brig of war Santa Anna, from Vera Cruz, with funds to pay for repairing the two Mexican war steamers, arrived on Sunday. Com. Moore will probably make arrangements to capture the three Mexican vessels as soon as he can get them outside of Sandy Hook.—N. Y. Sun.

OLE BULL'S NIAGARA.—A Philadelphia correspondent of a New York paper, speaking of Ole Bull's last concert, says, that artist, doubting the effect of his new composition of Niagara, he, with that modesty which so eminently characterizes him, placed before the orchestra, at his rehearsal on Saturday, the introduction, without naming the piece. The performers commenced; and, as several of them have described to me, they were in a few moments electrified. They played on, until, as if with simultaneous impulse, they ceased, and cried out, almost in raptures—"This is Niagara—you can not deceive us—this is Niagara!"

TAILORS.—Many eminent men have served their time at tailoring. Thomas Woolman, a native of New Jersey, who first suggested the idea of abolishing the slave trade, was a tailor by trade. He published much on the subject, and went to Europe to consult distinguished men respecting the topic, where he died of the small pox in 1772. Sir John Hawkwood—the first English Gen.—was also a tailor. His historian says of him—"He turned his needle into a sword, and his thimble into a shield." He died in 1394. In Haddingham there is a monument erected to his memory.

Benjamin Robbins, the compiler of Anson's voyage around the world—if not a tailor by trade, was the son of a tailor.

Sir Ralph Blackwell, knighted by Edward III. for his bravery, was a tailor by trade. He was the founder of Blackwell Hall.

John Stowe, the antiquarian, who died in London about the year 1600, at the age of 80 years, was a tailor.

John Speed, the distinguished historian, served his apprenticeship at the same trade.

Let our tailors be encouraged. Many an eminent man, besides those we have mentioned above, has arisen to usefulness and honor from this trade. No class of men among us are more industrious—and very few more intelligent.

EVE'S APPLE TREE.—"Eve's Apple Tree," (kadura gaha), is a tree of the middle size, and is found in great numbers. Its leaves are nine inches long, and three broad, with about twenty strong fibres branching off on each side of the centre one. Its fruit hang down in pairs from a long stalk. Its appearance is very peculiar, being like an apple with one-third cut or bitten out. It is deadly poison, and the milk that flows from it is so acid, that a drop falling on the hand raises a blister. The outside of a bright yellow color, and the inside is a deep crimson. It contains a large quantity of small black seeds, like the pips of an apple, imbedded in scarlet colored pulp. I have counted fifty-eight of these in one fruit. When ripe, the fruit bursts open and the seeds fall out; after which the outside shrivels up, and still adheres to the stalk for a considerable time.—Recollections of Ceylon.

SANDS'S SARSAPARILLA.—A perpetual process of deposit and absorption is going on in the human system. A portion of the blood is converted into the various structures of the body as fast as the worn out material is taken up by the absorbents, and discharged through various channels from the system. Now it is evident that if the blood is diseased, the substances formed from it cannot be healthy; and therefore so long as the blood is impure every organ, fibre and issue of the human body will be in an unnatural state. The condition of the system may be variously developed, sometimes outwardly, as in scrofula and other ulcerous and eruptive diseases, rheumatism &c.; and sometimes in the osseous system, in swelling or decay of the bones. It is clear that one remedy, which will remove the common cause of these deplorable disorders, will also cure each and all of them. That remedy is presented in Sands's Sarsaparilla, which, acting directly upon the vitalizing fluid, converts it from a morbid and ill-healthy state to a fit condition for the purposes of healthful life.

LOCAL NEWS.

FEMALE UNION BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

A meeting of this Association took place last night at the Unitarian Church. After prayer by the Rev. Dr. Laurie, the Annual Report of the Treasurers or Managers was read, and its details gave great satisfaction to the audience. The report is handsomely drawn up, and we presume it will be published for the information of the public; and for the encouragement and example of similar associations. Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon the ladies of Washington for their truly Christian Charity to the poor. Their benevolence has not stopped at mere alms-giving, which simply relieve the animal wants; but remembering that man liveth not by bread alone, they have endeavored to impart the balm of hope and consolation to the crushed and wounded spirits of the needy and helpless, and by the manifestation of fraternal sympathy with the poor.

After the Report was made, an address was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Hale. The address was impressive and eloquent, and its touching appeals to the heart must have met a response in every Christian and philanthropic heart.

A collection was taken up to be used by the Society for the benefit of the poor.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire last night about 9 o'clock proceeded from the burning of an unoccupied frame tenement, between 41 and 3d street, south of the canal, and fronting thereon. It was doubtless the work of an incendiary.

A MISSIONARY MEETING will be held in the Ebenezer (M. E.) Church, on Thursday evening, the 7th inst. at 7 o'clock. Addresses will be delivered by the Rev. Messrs. F. S. Evans and C. A. Davis of this city. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

BY MORSE'S TELEGRAPH, AND SOUTHERN MAIL.

VIRGINIA.

The following are all the returns received from the State by the Southern boat and Morse's Telegraph up to 3 o'clock this evening. Though they are not as favorable as was expected, we are not yet without hope of carrying the State:

* Polls still open.

The Richmond Whig of this morning says: "A rough comparison of the vote of Virginia, as far as received in this city, as compared with 1840, produces this result—a Whig gain of 111. So far we remain firm in the opinion that we shall go to the Blue Ridge as far ahead as in 1840. If our friends beyond the mountains have not been deceived, and by being deceived, deceived their brethren East of the Blue Ridge, Virginia has voted for Clay. All depends upon that. We think the State has voted for Clay, as we have always believed she would."

NORTH CAROLINA.

No election news has been received from this State by this evening's mail.

NEW YORK.

It is rumored through the city that an express was to have been sent from New York to Philadelphia with the returns of the election in the former city. Up to the hour of going to press no account of it had reached Baltimore, and probably will not until to-night about 10 o'clock.
